HONOREE

Sean Farley

Sean Farley is a loving husband to Kristen for nearly 13 years, and a doting dad to Gracie, age 11, Katie, age 9, and Lexi, age 7. Sean was raised locally in Floral Park and now resides in Lynbrook, NY. A “cop’s kid” with his dad having proudly represented the NYPD for nearly 30 years, Sean is the son of Richie and Lauri Farley. Sean is a man of the people and a man of the Church.

Sean is the Founder and Owner of the NOVUS Realty Group, providing hundreds of families great homes in the Tri-State Area. Sean is also the co-founder and managing partner of College Cribs Housing, LP, a real estate investment company centered around off campus housing near colleges and universities in multiple cities.

Sean is not only a family man, entrepreneur, author, and philanthropist, he is also one of the most generous people out there, and a tremendous golfer. Sean is always the first one to jump in and lend a hand, from helping families through Sandy, helping kids with gifts during Christmas, and always mentoring youth for a better future. Sean is actively involved in a variety of charitable organizations and has done years of fundraising for worthy causes. So, no better person to be the 2023 Honoree!

Sean has close ties to the Little Sisters of the Poor, Queen of Peace Residence located in Queens Village, that go way back, while also being a member of St. Agnes church in Rockville Centre.
